My Decodable Passage

Wrap It Up

There are a number of things you can wrap up. If you want to give your mom a picture of a lamb, wrap it up! Special gifts should be wrapped up! Did you smash your thumb when you were writing? You know the answer! Wrap it up! If you get a knot on your knee, should you wrap it? It would be wrong not to wrap it up. Can you wrap a castle? You can wrap the castle in Christmas lights and it would be so special. Castles wrapped in lights are my favorite! Can you wrap a baby? You can wrap a baby in a knit blanket. If your wrist feels numb, wrap it up! There are also a number of things you could wrap up, but you shouldn't. Can you wrap a knife? You can, but you better be careful or you will hurt your thumb. So there are a number of things you can wrap, but not be careful! What is your favorite thing to wrap?

WHAT OTHER TEACHERS ARE SAYING

thefirstgraderoundup.com

I am so glad I found these! It makes reading decodables an easy addition to my small groups. I really love the assessment that comes with each concept. I will be using this on a weekly basis to help me gather data to report specifically to parents on how their child is doing with each concept.

~Marie

I love these! My students were so far behind because our school is stuck using f&p. I snuck these into my guided reading and saw soooooo much growth. My students loved the success they saw too.

~Kelda

This is a great resource when trying to align instruction with SOR and phonics-based curriculum. We shifted to SOR, Wilson, and Heggerty, but didn't have the books/resources to support learning, so we used this resource and it is fantastic!

Print, Fold & Staple Booklets

The decodable booklets in the main file are in a print, fold and staple format. That means that you do not have to cut or order any pages! Yay! Just print the booklet double sided (flipping on the short edge). Then, fold and staple and you are good to go!

Spatially challenged like I am? Get some visuals to help you figure out exactly what your doing in this blog post!

<http://www.thefirstgraderoundup.com/2020/01/the-easiest-way-to-put-together.html>

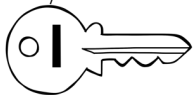

This process is easy enough that you can hand each kid their stack of booklet pages and they can fold and staple themselves! Or have a copy mom do this for you super fast each week!
