WHAT OTHER TEACHERS ARE SAYING

thefirstgraderoundup.com

I use anchor charts in my classroom and this was a great way to have students make their own at the same time. They really enjoyed it!

My students used this resource when working in small groups. This resource was perfect for my special education classroom.

~Evelyn

My class loved using this resource for their morning table top activities and we used it as one of literacy stations also. They were engaged in the activity with the resource and had no problem working independently. Great activity to revise verbs tenses after we covered them in class.
